Bankers Are Beaten by Manhattan, 6 to 2

Harry Burke Is Master of American Security, Allowing Them but Two Hits-"Shag" Rawlings and Rapp Star in Field.

Manhattan became more aggressive in sion B yesterday, defeating the American Security and Trust nine in the best played game of the series, 6 to 2.

Burke had the Bankers eating out of his hand, only two of the Trust Boys being able to connect with his delivery. The first of these two bingles did not come until the sixth inning. Fienli pitched a good game for the Bankers. Three runs as the result of two hits in the fourth session gave the game to the Independence Leaguers. The throwing of Oakley to second and great running catches by Gates Rapp and "Shag" Rawlings were the features.

Manhattan Goes Into Lead.

Manhattan came back with a veng ance in the fourth, and before the i shoved over the dish. Walter, the fir man up, was hit by a pitched ball. I went to second on Scott Dampier's sa sent to second on Scott Dampier's sacrifice hit. Will Donnelly took first on McDonald's muff. Harriman smashed a single to right, scoring Walter. Donnelly plifered the keystone bag. Oakley punched out a single, sending both runners over the pan. Burke fanned and Dakkey was caught stealing second.
The Bankers garnered their first hit off Burk's delivery in the sixth when "Skects" Hayes smashed a single to right. He died stealing second. "Reggio" Hawlings was deprived of what looked to be a sure triple in the sixth when Gates Rapp captured his long fly after a sprint of twenty-five yards.

Two More for Manhattan.

Two More for Manhattan. Manhattan got a duo of tallies in the sighth. Jimmy Donnelly singled, lent exhibition, and but for de Chuck" Dampier whisted the air, and might have played an extra same Score:

'Monk' Walter hit a fly to right, "Shag" Langdon, ABHOAE Carolina, AB Rawlings caught the pellet in the crowafter a hard run. Donnelly stole second and third, and Scott Dampier walked. Will Donnelly hit an easy grounder to short which Hayes muffed and threw wild to first, the two runners scoring in the play. Donnelly was caught between second and third, making the hird out.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Oakley was pegging true as a die he second sack, catching three of the Bankers in attempted steals.

Dampier smashed the pill to right for

"Jimmy" Cakley's single in the fourth was responsible for two of the runs which the Independence Leaguers shoved marked after the game that Burke pitch-id better ball than he knew how to

'Mike" McDonald gathered in four of

"Shaga" Rawlings pulled some catch the eighth inning. "Monk" Walter hit to right for what looked to be a three

Gates Rapp received the applause which was due him in the seventh inning, when he came to the tit. Rapp had just pulled a great catch in the sixth and robbed the Bankers of a possible run.
